CAFP ANNOUNCES THE NEW NATIONAL PRESIDENT

Toronto, September 9, 2009 The Canadian Association of Foodservice Professionals / Association canadienne des professionnels des services alimentaires (CAFP/ACPSA) is proud to announce Brian Emmerton RD, CFE as the new president of the association. He was inducted to the position for a two-year term at the annual conference held in Calgary in June.

Brian Emmerton is a Registered Dietitian and a Credentialed Food Service Executive. He is Vice President, for Complete Purchasing Services Inc., Canada's leading group purchasing provider for the senior living industry.

In his role, Brian provides leadership to a national account and sales team providing group purchasing, menu, and education services to many of Canada's retirement residences, long term care facilities, and social service agencies.

Brian has been an active and integral part of the Toronto Branch of CAFP and has been a member since 1990 while at Ryerson University. At the national board level, he has chaired the national bursary program and has developed a strong and sustainable sponsorship program with major national companies in the food industry.

As well as his position as President with CAFP, Brian is also a director with The Albion and Bolton Agricultural Society, and is a member of the Caledon Agricultural Advisory Committee.

About CAFP:

The Canadian Association of Foodservice Professionals / Association canadienne des professionnels des services alimentaires (CAFP/ACPSA) is a national association whose mission is to promote professional and personal growth and develop alliances leading to excellence in the Foodservice and Hospitality Industry.
