

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The 2011-2012 CAFP EDUCATION PROGRAM ANNOUNCED

Toronto, March 14, 2011. The Canadian Association of Foodservice Professionals / Association canadienne des professionnels des services alimentaires (CAFP/ACPSA) announced today the theme of the 2011-2012 CAFP Professional Development Program to be Keeping Pace with Change.

One of the pillars of the Canadian Association of Foodservice Professionals is education. The education program, again being developed by Jason Cheskes, President of Above the Line Solutions, will be used by each of the eleven branches across the country when planning their program for the upcoming year. Sessions held at branches across the country will focus on the wide range of challenges and developments in the foodservice and hospitality industry.

CAFP encourages organizations wishing to participate in the National Professional Development Program, or that would like further information on this program, to contact Jason Cheskes at info@abovethelinesolutions.com or through www.abovethelinesolutions.com

Non members are welcome to attend the monthly meetings. To find out more about the associations and the dates and locations of the meetings across the country, go to:
